Brief profile

A Student of English Language and Literature, committed to synchronize theory with pragmatic end of education. He remains perceptive of the world around him and tries to weigh and measure instead of taking anything for granted. Educated from a humble family background, he went on to pursue higher education from the seat of learning, Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi. There he got an opportunity to broaden his perceptive mind and completed his Masters and Doctor of Philosophy in English Literature. Since his days in BHU, he has been inclined towards research and academic engagements and he takes pride in associating with one of the prestigious universities, Jamia Millia Islamia as his place of work. While serving as an academician and overseeing administrative obligations, he assumes numerous roles within the university. He discharged his unblemished and efficient services to the university as Hony. Assistant Controller of Examinations, Central Public Information Officer etc. Currently, he is the Officer on Special Duty (OSD) to the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor of the university. The close collaboration with students and researchers provides him with immense satisfaction. He looks forward to intensifying his efforts to contribute in academic, administrative as well as corporate life of the university.
